

November 16, 1961

Louise Anderson

Louise Anderson, born Louise Klabynde, May 6, 1895, on a farm south of Groton, passed away Nov. 6, 1961, following a long illness.

Mrs. Anderson's mother died at the time of the child's birth and she was reared by foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Ringger, residents of Groton for many years. Following her education in the grades and high school in Groton, Louise married Oscar Anderson, who was in the drug business. This union two children were born, Ben of Groton and Irene, now Mrs. Mel Schubert of Pocatello, Idaho. Mr. Anderson preceded her in death.

Some years ago Mrs. Anderson left the farm home in the west edge of Groton to the care of her son, and moved to St. Paul, Minn., where she resided until 1958. She then went to California to visit her daughter, where she was stricken with a protracted illness in the summer of 1959. She submitted to several surgeries and was up and about for varying periods. In April, 1961, she came to the present home of her daughter in Pocatello, Idaho, following another period of confinement in a hospital in Long Beach, Calif. She remained a semi-invalid in the home of her daughter in Pocatello until June, when the severity of the disease sent her to a hospital in that city. She received all the skilled care could accomplish, but to no permanent avail and she passed away November 6th.

Her body was returned to Groton for funeral services, under the direction of the Paetznick Funeral Home. Services were held in the Presbyterian church, Rev. Robert Carey officiating on Nov. 10th. The Order of Eastern Star attended the services in a body and the church was filled with friends who mourn her passing — a gracious and good friend to all who knew her.

Mrs. Anderson was devoted to the women's work in the Presbyterian church during her years in Groton and a regular attendant at the services at the church. She had been a member of the local Order of Eastern Star for forty years, and was a past master of the Order.

Besides the son and daughter, as mentioned, she is survived by her brother, Ben Klabynde of Bisbee, N. D., and six grand children.

Those from away attending the funeral were: Mrs. Mel Schubert, Pocatello, Idaho; Mr. and Mrs. Ben Schubert of Bismarck, N. D.; Mr. and Mrs. Miss Mabel Taeck-